REPORT,

BY CRANSTON & NORMAN,
127 THAMES STREET.

TUESDAY MORNING, SEP. 16, 1851.

President Fillmore, attended by sixty, and a number of gentlemen of town, dined at the Bellevue Tuesday afternoon, at 4 o'clock; being was asked by the Rev. Dr.

We never saw a more splendid table than Hazard spread for the occasion; it was well supplied with every that was choice and tempting—the President, said that, after we present are after this, the George G. King proposed the chish of his Excellency the President the United States, which was drunk among with three hearty cheers.

The Ball in the evening, at the Bellevue, was attended by a large number ladies and gentlemen. The President entered the assembly with his prosper for about an hour and a half, and was introduced to a number of those present. The music by the U. S. Band from Fort Adams was excellent, and the dancing was continued until a late hour. A number of the officers from Fort Adams were present, in full uniform.

Among the arrivals at the Bellevue from Boston, by the evening boat, we noticed Hon. George Lunt, U. S. District Attorney, Col. Schuyler, editor of the Atlas, Hon. N. P. Banks, Jr., Speaker of the House of Representatives, Gen.

Beard and Col. Needham, of Goy

Boutwell's staff; both in full uniform who came on to invite the President to Boston, as the guest of the State.

The President and suite left here yesterday morning, at 7 o'clock, in the steamer Canonius, for Fall River, where they were to take a special train for Boston. The President will leave Boston for Washington tomorrow evening, by this route; Mrs. Fillmore will meet him at the boat and return home with him. As he comes down tomorow evening, we think it would be a good plan to send up some rockets from the Long Wharf, and also to give him a hearty cheering.

We notice that Messrs. Gould & Lincoln, of Boston announce a new work in press, entitled "Young Americans abroad, on a Vacation in Europe."

—Rev. Dr. Choules, of this town; and from what we have heard of its character, we consider it just—one—that is calculated more particularly for the instruction and entertainment of boys, it is intended to give them a vast deal of information in regard to men and wings abroad, which they would not be likely to acquire by reading ordinary works of travel. We know of no generous man so well calculated to make such a book as this will be, as Dr.

Choules; he has just returned from Europe, where he made a very thorough tour—he is an exceedingly observing man, and takes great interest in the care and proper upbringing of boys and young men, and well knows how to write for their instruction and entertainment.

By reference to another column, it will be seen that the swift and excellent steamer Perry, Capt. George W.

Woolsey, will commence her new arangement on and after Monday next, leaving here at half past 8 in the morning, and leaving Providence at half past 1 in the afternoon. She connects with the Boston and Worcester trains both ways. The Perry is an excellent boat, and is indispensable to New-ports.

Capt. Woolsey does all in his power for the accommodation of the traveling public; and Mr. C. L. Stanhope, the obliging clerk, is always at his post, and as popular as ever. The Perry deserves the most liberal patronage.

Hancock Fire Company, No. 1, of Charlestown, Mass., were invited by the Salem Brass Band, and Gaspey

Company, No. 9, of Providence, accompanied by the American Brass Band, of that city, will visit this town tomorrow morning, in the steamer Minuteman; they will arrive here between 11 and 12 o'clock.

We refer our readers to the advertise of the Tremont House, Boston, in another column. This celebrated house has so long been a favorite with the traveling public, and has acquired so enviable a reputation, that it is almost needless to speak a word in its favor. It has recently been refit, and is now in most complete order.

Travelers will find it one of the best hotels in the country.

Among the distinguished visitors now in town, we notice Park Benjamin,

Esq.; he is at the Key Street House, where he will remain a week or two

We call attention to the sale of valuable land belonging to the estate of the late Esther Fleet, commencing this morning, at 10 o'clock, with a beautiful lot on Power street, near the Ocean House, and ending with a very desirable lot situated at the North end of Broadstreet, near the Wind Mills. This is one of the best locations on Rhode Island, and commands a beautiful view of the Ocean, Bay and surrounding scenery. Several other valuable estates in different parts of the town will also be sold, all of which will be good investments for those who desire to purchase real estate. See advertisement on fourth page of this morning's paper.

The President arrived at Boston yesterday at 12 o'clock. Gen. Wilson, Chairman of the State Convention, met him at Fall River and welcomed him in behalf of the state of Massachusetts. He was received at Dorchester by Hon. Marshall P. Wilder; at Roxbury by Mayor Waller and at Boston by Mayor Bigelow; to all of whom the President made very happy and concise speeches; he was then received at the Revere House by Gov. Bentwell. Hon. Daniel Webster joined the President and suite at the Revere House, yesterday afternoon.

The Massachusetts Free Soil Convention has nominated John G. Parsons for Governor, and Amasa Walker for Lieutenant Governor.

BY TELEGRAPH.

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 16th.

The excitement at Christiana still continues. A number of additional arrests have been made, including the following: Henry Read, William Williams, John Holiday, Wm. Brown, George Read and Benjamin Johnson, all of whom were brought here and committed to Moyersong.

The examination before Commissioner Ingraham was concluded at 10 o'clock last night, and resulted in the commitment of John Jackson and Thos. Butler, (colored) for high treason.

Altogether about fifty arrests have been made. The testimony against some is very strong.

Young Gorsuch is much better, and it is thought that he will recover.

Marshal Keyser's officers are still on duty.

HURRICANE AT ST. MARTINS.—The brig Francis Jane, arrived at this port from St. Martins, Aug. 22d, reports that a severe hurricane occurred there, coming on the 15th. The barque Imogene, of Charleston, S. C., bound to New York, with 1,600 hhds. salt on board, was driven ashore on the rocks, capsized and filled, the crew having a narrow escape for their lives. No intelligence had been received from the Southern Windward Islands, and it was feared that the gale there had been very destruc-

A writer says women require more sleep than men, and farmers less than those engaged in almost any other occupation. Editors, reporters, and doctors, need no sleep at all. Lawyers can sleep as much as they please, and thus keep out of mischief. Clergymen can sleep twelve hours out of twenty-four, and can put their parish to sleep once a week.

WET AND DRY.—A traveller went into an inn after a shower and asked the landlord to show him a good fire, "for," said he, "I'm very wet;" and then turning to the waiter he said, "bring me a tankard of ale immediately, for I am plough dry."

It is said that crushed beet applied to a wound will cure lock-jaw.

RIOTS AT NEW ORLEANS.—Eighteen persons have been arrested in the Crescent city, charged with inciting a mob to tear down the office of the True Delta, a paper which has fearlessly exposed the impositions and iniquities of the Cuban expedition promoters.

A young gentleman the other day asked a young lady what she thought of the marriage state in general.

"Not knowing, I can't tell," was the reply, "but if you and I were to put our heads together, I could soon give you a definite answer."

MARRIED.

In Lonsdale, 14th inst., Mr. Joseph Bowden, of Lonsdale, and Ann Marshall, of Providence.

DIED.

On Tuesday night, Elizabeth D., only daughter of Robert D. Coggeshall, aged 4 years, 3 months, died on Thursday, at 2 o'clock, at the house of Benjamin G. Updike, in Sherman street, where friends and relatives are reported to attend, and a funeral service is to be held.

On Friday, at 2 o'clock, the body of Robert D. Coggeshall, aged 4 years, 3 months, was interred in the cemetery of the Methodist Church, in Sherman street.
